

Nevett Ford Award for Academic Excellence University of Ballarat

Nevett Ford has continued its support of the School of Business of the University of Ballarat in awarding an undergraduate student the Nevett Ford Award 2009.

Nevett Ford Managing Director Peter Wilson presented the Nevett Ford Award for the Best Student graduating with a major in law in the School of Business at the University of Ballarat at a ceremony held on 6 May 2009. The Award recipient was undergraduate Victor Nicholson.

Nevett Ford have for many years, supported the School of Business Awards for Academic Excellence and were pleased to do so again. In supporting the awards Peter Wilson commented that the University of Ballarat has a strong connection with the community, particularly the business community and the firm felt it appropriate to reciprocate by supporting the University by the Award for Academic Excellence.

Peter Wilson, apart from being the Managing Director of Nevett Ford, also holds appointment as a Member of the Council of the University of Ballarat. The firm's connection with the University extends in other ways. Senior Associate Vivienne Stephens for many years lectured in the School of Business.

In presenting the Award, Mr Wilson congratulated Victor on his outstanding performance and wished him well in his future studies and career.
